

Help Fund the Classical Concert Series

The best form of support is your attendance. Tickets may be reserved online at ndmoa.com and are discounted for Museum members. Although our 2021-22 season will be truncated, we are grateful that musicians are now able to tour once again and have been able to arrange their schedules to include travel to North Dakota. We rely on donations and sponsorships to make the series possible. The full season will be announced at the February 27th Trio con Brio Copenhagen concert and will include at least one additional concert later this spring. Musician and travel costs range from $6,000 to $12,000 for each concert; we welcome contributions at whatever works best for you or your organization.
